Mr Hazeland objected that minute questions irrelevant to the case should not be put by the Magistrate, as they would never appear as evidence before the Supreme Court: it was mere waste of time.

Mr May remarked that it might appear waste of time, but in a case so important he intended to test the statements made v those witnesses in every possible way. The Crown Solicitor said that the quesions but were all for the defence: and certainly was not for the Magistrate specially to look after the prisoners' defence. As for the prosecution, that was

Mr May again stated that the prisoners were not defended, and that if Mr Hazeland, as representing the Crown, put all the questions for the prosecution, he would take care to do so for the case, not for the defence. (Pall Mall Gazette, Dec. 29.) When the map of Europe is definitely earranged we have no doubt that Spain will have Gibraltar. Possibly she will have it sooner: but certainly it seems singularly ill-timed to moot the question in the present crisis of her affairs. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. HIS Medicing is universally admitted to be the most efficacious remedy known to the world. No preparation is so tf suitable to the climates of India and China as this fine and invigorating medicine, is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it is never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females. while those who are attenuated by the debilitating effects of the above climates will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of taliamen whereby they may insure a restoration to robust health. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

The ecience of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Ointment, as it cares after all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcors, and also the most inveterate skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China. It is the true friend of the Soldier and Civilian, as certain old sores can be removed by it that cannot be conquered by any other treat-

The author in his Preface says:—"The tables in Chap. VII., for estimating prices, tables in Chap. VII., for estimating prices, measurement of goods, exchanges, &c. have been selected from those constantly in use among the foreign merchants in China. Those for calculating the prices of tea in dollars or pence have been copied from the more extended tables, by the kind permission of the author, P. Loureiro, Esq. The ast section of the same chapter on "Movements in Bullion," has been prepared and furnished for the Guide by Patrick B. Harper, Esq., of the Commercial Bank of India at Hongkong, who has had much experience in the exchanges and movements of the precious metals in Eastern Asia.

"The Appendix of Sailing Directions has been reprinted from the China Pilot." With short interruptions, the coasts from Singapore to Hakodadi are all described in it; and for the Chinese coasts, the Directions have been improved by the insertion of the Chinese characters for the names of all places that could be ascertained."
